Think Globally & Act Locally

The September issue of National Geographic magazine has a very interesting article entitled "The State of the Planet". It is very thought provoking, provides some encouragement and outlines further concerns about our planet's health. The article certainly helps put into perspective the wise saying to "think globally and act locally".

At times, it probably seems that as one person what impact could I possibly have on the quality of life in the world in which we live? More than you know! People's individual actions, combined into one, do add up into either a positive or negative impact.

The National Geographic article cites seven "signs of progress" toward an improved planet's health. These improvements include more "green thinking" in how we approach issues, wider use of alternative transportation that is cleaner burning, a ban on the "dirty dozen" pollutants aimed at cleaner air and water, ecotourism pointed toward visiting people respecting natural areas, large corporations cleaning-up their operating practices, more environmentally sensitive building practices, and significant acid rain reductions by lowering emissions of sulfur dioxide and nitrogen oxides. Taken together, these actions are having a strong and positive impact on our environment.

On the other side of the coin, certain concerns persist and warrant attention. The magazine describes the seven "setbacks" as the earth's global warming, a world appetite for oil, disappearing wetlands, the significant increase of mega-dams spanning the world's rivers, loss of coral reefs, over-fishing in the oceans and the significant increase in nuclear waste stockpiles.

We can think globally and act locally in many ways that will have an impact on our environment and overall quality of life. The City has been supportive of sound natural environmental protections, including collaborative efforts with Metro and other jurisdictions in the county to adopt regulations that preserve sensitive wetlands and promote cleaner waterways. The Title 3 and Goal 5 processes, in conjunction with Metro, have provided significant improvements to and preservation of fish, waterway and riparian habitat.

The City, with citizen support and action, has been recognized for its outstanding efforts in recycling. Most anything can be recycled at the curbside and Beaverton citizens have taken every opportunity to keep used and depleted material out of the landfills. What isn't routinely picked-up, people will take to alternative recycling centers.

The City of Beaverton has been part of a regional consortium of water agencies to promote more efficient water usage. We have been strongly promoting and encouraging voluntary conservation of water resources. The City has installed low consumption water-efficient toilets in all City facilities. As part of our water saving efforts, the City has also been replacing old and leaking water meters throughout the City's water system. To help encourage conservation, we also purchase some

"Green Power" from our energy provider Portland General Electric (PGE). To reduce energy consumption, all City facilities have been retrofitted for more energy efficient lighting systems. In addition, cost savings have been significant.

There are many ways to think globally and act locally. We can all do our part to better preserve our natural environment and enjoy a higher quality of life.

Council Corner: Thanks for the Opportunity

by Councilor Evelyn Brzezinski

PLEASE NOTE: The Council Corner article reflects the views of the Councilor writing the article.
The Mayor's or other Councilor's opinions may not be fully reflected in Council Corner articles.

Councilor Evelyn Brzezinski

This is the last Council Corner I'll write. I chose not to run for re-election this past spring, and so am leaving City Council at the end of December. I want to take this opportunity to thank a number of people who have helped to make the past ten years memorable for me.

First, I'd like to thank the Beaverton voters who elected me in 1993, 1994 and 1998. I appreciate the confidence you showed in me, and hope you feel that, on the whole, I made good decisions on your behalf.

Next, I want to thank the hundreds of citizens I've come to know because of their involvement in local government. In the time I served as a City Councilor, I represented the City on the following committees: Beaverton Arts Commission, Beaverton Committee for Citizen Involvement, Beaverton School District's Long-Range Facilities Planning Committee, Beaverton Sister Cities Foundation, Community Action Organization, Library Advisory Board, Metropolitan Area Communications Commission and Senior Citizens Advisory Committee. I came in contact, too, with many members of our Neighborhood Association Committees (NACs). The energy and interest shown by these committee members always made me feel proud of my community. Their work contributes immeasurably to what we know as Beaverton's quality of life.

The City of Beaverton staff are some of the best civil servants I've ever come across. They've bought into the concept of customer service, and truly do recognize that their reason for being is to serve the citizens of Beaverton. I have, of course, gotten to know department heads the best. We are fortunate to have this caliber of people in these positions. They are viewed as leaders by their peers in other jurisdictions, and we as a city are perceived very positively across the region—and the state as a whole—because of the quality of our City staff. Thanks to all of them for the work they do every day on our behalf.

Finally, I'd like to thank Mayor Drake and my fellow Councilors (including former Councilor Wes Yuen) for making the Beaverton City Council a place where I felt comfortable to express my own opinion, regardless of whether it was the majority or minority view. I can honestly say that, while we may have disagreed on issues before us, hard feelings never existed among us. I'm confident that, over the past ten years, we made many more correct decisions than incorrect ones. I attribute that to the fact that, as Councilors and Mayor, we came to each meeting prepared for the issues before us, yet with open minds about what we would be hearing. It was a pleasure to serve with a group of people who took their role as seriously as Mayor Drake, Councilor Doyle, Councilor Ruby, Councilor Soth and Councilor Stanton do. I want to go on record now to thank them for the continued good work I know they (and new Councilor Bode) will do in the years ahead.

Neighborhood Program: Applicants Sought for Boards & Commissions

The City of Beaverton provides opportunities for public involvement through its many boards and commissions. The City is seeking individuals to fill vacancies on some boards and commissions. In December, the terms of some members will expire.

Although not all the boards and commissions listed below will have vacancies, applications are being taken to fill vacancies as they occur. Applications may be obtained in the Neighborhood Program office in City Hall (4755 SW Griffith Drive), on the City's website at www.ci.beaverton.or.us, or by calling (503) 526-2543 V/TDD.

The deadline for applications is 4:30 p.m. on Friday, October 18, 2002, and interviews for the applicants will be scheduled in November and December. Preference is given to City residents. Additional information is available at www.ci.beaverton.or.us/mayor/boards.html.

If you have an interest or special knowledge in the following areas, we would welcome your application:

ARTS COMMISSION

Responsible for carrying out a variety of cultural events, and should have interest or background in supporting the arts. The Board raises funds to support the Arts Commission and its projects. Requirements include one Board meeting per month, membership in the Arts Commission, chairing one major event during tenure on the Board, attendance at BAC events and assistance on subcommittees.

BIKE TASK FORCE

Promotes bicycle use in and around Beaverton.

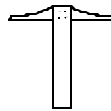

Provides City staff with public review on all proposed projects, both public and private, as they may impact bicycle circulation, access and general use. Evaluates the existing bikeway system and recommends development priorities for the Bikeway Capital Improvement Program. Consists of nine members who meet once a month.

BOARD OF CONSTRUCTION APPEALS

Rules on the appropriateness of proposed alternative materials and methods of construction. Considers interpretation of code whenever staff interpretation is aggrieved. Board members are appointed based on education, training or experience in a specialized area of construction. Nine members serve three-year terms and on an as-needed basis.

BOARD OF DESIGN REVIEW

Reviews new building or major remodeling design proposals, landscaping and site development plans, and sign permit applications. Consists of seven members who are specifically qualified by education or training; one who is actively engaged in local business, commerce or industry; one architect; one landscape architect; and one in graphics or applied arts. Board members are appointed to three-year terms and meet every Thursday.

BUDGET COMMITTEE

Reviews the City's proposed budget before submission to the City Council for review and final adoption. Consists of five members having experience and/or interest in the area of budget and finance, and meets three times a year.

The five City Councilors are also on the Committee.

CITIZENS WITH DISABILITIES ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Monitors the City's self-evaluation and transition plan for ADA requirements and makes recommendations for accessibility to all city facilities including visual inspections. Reviews all service statements regarding citizens with disabilities made by departments and agencies receiving City funds, and provides City Council, Mayor, departments and the general public with suggestions for improving Beaverton as a place to live for people with disabilities. Consists of seven members who serve three-year terms and meet once a month.

COMMITTEE FOR CITIZEN INVOLVEMENT

Provides an opportunity for citizens to exchange ideas and information with city government, and to monitor and evaluate public involvement programs adopted by City Council. The five at-large members serve three-year terms. The Neighborhood Association Committees (NAC) also appoint NAC representatives to the committee, which meets once a month.

HISTORIC RESOURCE REVIEW COMMISSION

Makes recommendations to the Planning Commission and Board of Design Review to preserve, enhance and perpetuate landmarks and districts which represent or reflect elements of the city's cultural, social, economic, political and architectural history. Consists of seven members serving three-year terms and meets on an as-needed basis.

HUMAN RIGHTS ADVISORY COMMISSION

Promotes harmonious intergroup relations within the City of Beaverton by enlisting the cooperation of various racial, religious, and nationality groups, business, community, labor and governmental organizations, fraternal and benevolent associations, educational and other groups. Examines sources of tension, practices of discrimination and acts of prejudice by employees of the City. Recommend solutions to specific problems of prejudice or discrimination. Nine members serve three-year terms and meet once a month.

LIBRARY BOARD

Serves in an advisory capacity to the City Librarian, the Mayor and City Council on matters pertaining to the City Library. Consists of seven members serving three-year terms and meets once a month.

PLANNING COMMISSION

Reviews and recommends changes to the City's Comprehensive Plan, zoning ordinances, and other policies and ordinances which deal with long-range planning and development. Considers issues involving subdivisions, annexations, capital improvements, transportation and circulation. Consists of seven members appointed to three-year terms and meets every Wednesday.

SENIOR CITIZENS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Represents the views of Beaverton seniors to the Mayor and City Council. Reviews and comments on public issues and proposals which have an impact on the elderly. Educates the general public concerning issues affecting older persons through publication of information and sponsoring public forums. Consists of eleven members and meet once a month.

SISTER CITIES FOUNDATION

Responsible for a variety of events relating to exchanges with our sister cities in Japan, Taiwan, Republic of China., Korea, Russia, and Germany. Requirements are membership in the Foundation, fundraising assistance, attendance at Sister Cities events, and committee service. Members serve three-year terms and meet once a month.

TRAFFIC COMMISSION

Advises the City Council on traffic safety issues of a neighborhood or citywide significance, assists in promulgating standards and policies related to neighborhood traffic management, and reviews and comments upon changes to traffic patterns and programs proposed by the City, County or State. Consists of seven members and meets once a month.

President Bush Honors BPD Volunteer

During President George W. Bush's recent visit to Portland, he honored the Beaverton Police Department's Volunteer Program, and one of its key volunteers, Freddie McBride who has volunteered with BPD since 1994.

President Bush's recognition of McBride supports his national efforts to inspire every American to become involved in strengthening America's communities through volunteerism.

Engineering Department: Carollon Condominium Storm Drainage Project

The May 1994 Drainage Master Plan identified the need to upgrade the drainage system at the Carollon Condominium complex on SW 96th Avenue. The need for this upgrade was demonstrated in dramatic fashion during the floods of February 1996. The floodwaters flowed into the lower floors of the complex causing extensive damage to the lower units. The residents came to the City Council and requested assistance to prevent a reoccurrence of the flooding that occurred during the 1996 event. The City Council granted the request and began planning a solution.

The problem area is situated at the confluence of two drainage basins with a total area of 178 acres that drain to the Hall Creek Tributary. The upstream runoff is directed through an assortment of substandard pipes constructed over the years under Washington County jurisdiction.

The development of the project included extensive involvement of the adjacent property owners as well as the Division of State Lands (DSL) and the Department of Fish and Wildlife (ODFW). The solution approved by the City, DSL, and ODFW was to replace the existing 24-inch-diameter pipe with dual 30-inch-diameter pipes and construction of 290 lineal feet of excavated and enhanced open channel. Construction of the piping system and open channel began in June 2002 and is now complete. The restoration of the natural vegetation and landscaping is currently underway and is 90 percent complete. The entire project is expected to be completed on time, within budget, and in time for the upcoming rainy season.

A glimpse of the 1996 flood demonstrates the type of problem this project hopes to prevent.

Operations Department: Free Leaf Disposal

The City of Beaverton, in conjunction with Clean Water Services, is opening a leaf disposal station at the Operations Center located at 9600 SW Allen Blvd. The station will be open to the public on Saturday, November 23, 2002 and Saturday December 7, 2002 from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. This disposal station will accept leaves only. Anything else mixed with the load (branches, shrubs, trash, plastic bags, etc.) will not be accepted.

Clean Water Services will operate their leaf program on the same dates and times at the Sunset High School parking lot at 13840 NW Cornell Road, and the Aloha High School parking lot at 18550 SW Kinnaman Road. City of Beaverton residents are welcome to use these facilities if either location is more convenient.

The City is implementing this program to help reduce the problem of leaves being raked, dumped, blown, or otherwise deposited in the street near the curb area. This creates possible flooding situations when fall and winter rains move the leaves down the curb line to the catch basins. Leaf dumping is also in violation of City ordinances (Obstructing the Right-of-Way 5.05.115 and Dumping Debris in Streets 5.05.095). The City street sweepers cannot remove piles of leaves. Street sweepers are designed to pick up leaves that fall naturally from trees onto our streets.

As always, the City appreciates the cooperative effort its citizens display in keeping our City beautiful. Your efforts, along with the City's scheduled street sweeping, may help prevent flooding. If you would like information or a map of our street sweeping schedule, please call (503) 526-2220 V/TDD; or, you may visit our Web site at www.ci.beaverton.or.us. The street sweeping schedule can be found by choosing Departments, Operations, and then Street Sweeping.

72 HOUR KIT FOR YOUR HOME

It's never too early to prepare! Disasters seldom give warning and are often devastating to their victims.

Prepare yourself for a minimum of 3 days. Due to overwhelming need or no road access, emergency services may not be available for up to 72 hours after a major disaster.

Storing Emergency Supplies

• Choose a location, such as a closet or “safety corner” in the garage, where it is cool and dark. If you live in an apartment or have limited space, be innovative. Other possible storage locations include under the bed, under stairways, or even in a large box or plastic tub that can be covered with a tablecloth and used as an end table.

• Layer supplies as shown, and keep them together in a container such as a plastic garbage can with wheels. Check every 6 months for food expiration dates, children's clothing sizes, etc.

• Start with what you already have. If you're a camper or backpacker, you've got a head start. Your tent, cook stove, and other gear can double as emergency supplies.

Being Prepared is Another Form of Insurance

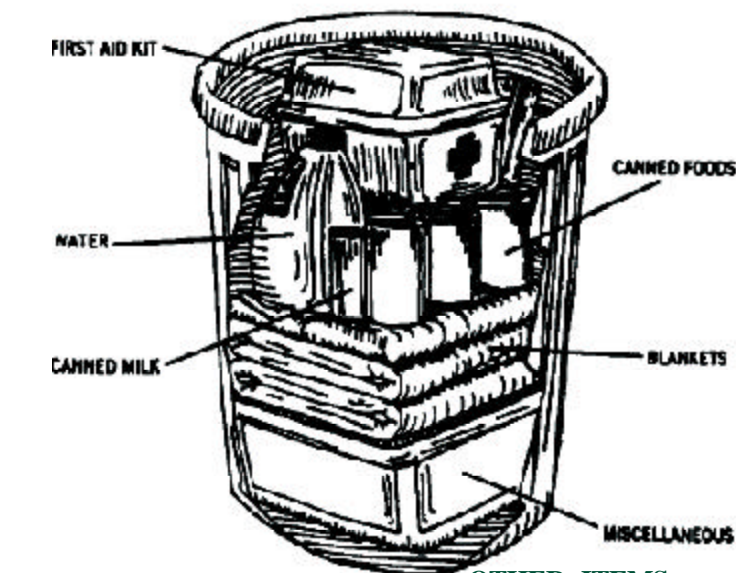

FOOD:

• Use canned foods for easy storage and long shelf life. Choose ready-to-eat canned meat, fruits, and vegetables that your family likes. Keep food fresh by checking dates and replacing it every year.

• Also recommended are canned or dried juice mixes; powdered or canned milk; high energy food (peanut butter, jelly, crackers, unsalted nuts, and trail mix); cereals, and rice.

• Store foods in single- or family meal-size packaging. Unrefrigerated leftovers can lead to food poisoning.

• Don't forget your pets. Store canned and dry pet food along with an extra collar and leash. Pets are not allowed in most shelters. If evacuated, you may have to leave them behind with extra food.

• Add a manual can opener, cooking and eating utensils, and basic food seasonings.

WATER:

• Store a three day supply of water for each family member. One gallon per person per day is recommended for drinking, cooking, and washing. Remember to include water for your pets. Write the date on the water containers and replace them every six months.

• Learn how to remove the water from your hot water heater just in case you need it. Be sure to turn off the gas or electricity to the tank before draining off water for emergency use.

• Purify water by boiling it for 5 to 10 minutes or by adding drops of household bleach containing 5.25% hypochlorite. The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) recommends 16 drops of bleach per gallon of water. Water purification tablets or a filter system such as those designed for campers and backpackers also work.

Cars, Motorhomes & Trailers: Where Can You Park?

Depending on where you park a car, truck, recreational vehicle, or trailer, it could create a hazard or detract from the appearance of the neighborhood. The main function of a public street is to allow for the safe passage of vehicles and, in most areas, for temporary parking. Below is a summary of parking regulations designed to prevent a hazard or an eyesore:

- A vehicle is considered abandoned if it is left on a public street for more than 48 hours. Exception: If the vehicle is operable and parked in front of the owner's residence, it can remain there as long as the vehicle owner wants.
- An inoperable vehicle left on private property is considered to be a discarded vehicle. It must be made operable, or be put inside a garage, or be removed from the property.

- Motorhomes, trailers, and boats are allowed to be parked on a public street for no more than 48 hours.

- Vehicles must be parked parallel to the roadway and be headed in the direction of travel, unless otherwise posted.

- Vehicles may not be parked on a public street for the purpose of selling the vehicle.

- Except in an emergency, vehicles may not be repaired on a public street.

- A vehicle, boat, or trailer may not block a sidewalk.

- Do not park oversized vehicles near an intersection where they can create a vision obstruction.

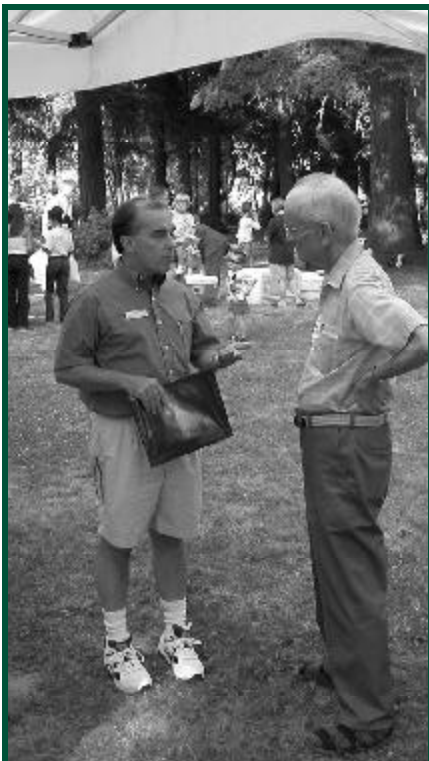

Cars parked on private property must be on a hard surface – asphalt, concrete or paver blocks. Gravel parking spaces are not allowed. If you want to add a parking space alongside your driveway or garage, you must obtain a permit from the City. Side yard and rear yard parking spaces are only allowed in the R-10, R-7 and R-3.5 residential zones.

Please remember to watch out for fire lanes, which may be identified by signs or by a red curb. Parking of vehicles is not allowed in these areas so that emergency vehicles will have the necessary access.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

If you have any questions or concerns about parking in your neighborhood, call the Code Services Office at (503) 526-2270.

Beaverton Dispute Resolution Center: Volunteer Base Expanded

Are you experiencing a conflict with a neighbor, landlord or tenant, or a business? The Dispute Resolution Center is fully staffed with a new group of volunteer mediators. They are eager to answer your questions about mediation services, provide referral resources, and open cases.

The new volunteers participated in a three-day basic mediation training to prepare them to assist the Center with day-to-day activities including telephone mediation, community outreach, and program development. The training and selection of volunteers followed an overwhelming response from the community to provide mediation services. The response was due in part to a July 4, 2002, article in The Oregonian's Washington County Weekly, which highlighted the Center's use of volunteers and mediation services.

The additional help will allow Center staff and volunteers to be more visible in the community and expand services, such as outreach to manufactured dwelling parks, businesses, and schools. The Center also offers conflict resolution training workshops for community groups and organizations.

Volunteer mediators and staff are available to assist you in resolving conflicts, and encourage you to call the Center at (503) 526-2523. Office hours are 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and Fridays from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. We also invite you to participate in "Mediation Month" activities in November, which will kick off with a reading of a proclamation by Mayor Rob Drake at the Beaverton City Council meeting on November 4, 2002.

Community Development Department: Proposed Urban Growth Boundary Expansion

Metro, the regional government for the Portland area, is responsible under State law for setting an urban growth boundary (UGB) around the region, including the City of Beaverton. State law requires that Metro provide sufficient buildable land within the UGB to accommodate projected housing needs for a 20-year period, as well as to provide sufficient land for industrial and commercial development. Pursuant to a work program approved by the State, Metro is supposed to make a decision by the end of this year about how much to expand the UGB to meet future land needs.

On August 1, Metro's Executive Officer, Mike Burton, recommended adding approximately 17,000 acres to accommodate approximately 38,000 dwelling units as well as 2,200 acres for employment. Although 89% of the recommended additional acreage is in the Damascus area of Clackamas County, some land is also proposed for addition adjacent to or near the Beaverton city limits. This includes 1,074 acres of land west of the city on Cooper Mountain with an estimated capacity of about 2,800 dwelling units. A UGB expansion is also recommended north of the Sunset Highway to include land near the Portland Community College Rock Creek campus. More information about the areas recommended for urbanization is available on Metro's Web site at www.metro.dst.or.us.

In October, Metro will be conducting a series of open houses and public hearings throughout the region to receive comments on the recommended UGB expansion. One of these will be at the Beaverton Library (Room A-B) on October 3. The hearing will begin at 6 p.m., preceded by an open house starting at 5 p.m. where maps of the areas proposed for addition can be viewed. Notice of the open houses/hearings were sent in September to all owners of properties inside the areas proposed for addition as well as those within one mile of those areas. Property owners in the southwest part of the City, generally west of Murray Boulevard, should have received these notices.

Comments on the proposed UGB amendments are due to Metro by November 1, 2002. Comments can be provided by leaving a message on Metro's hotline at (503) 797-1888 option 1, sending a fax to (503) 797-1793, sending an e-mail to ugb@metro.dst.or.us, or writing to Councilor Rod Park, Chair, Community Planning Committee, Metro, 600 NE Grand Avenue, Portland, OR 97232.

Mayor Drake, as a member of the Metro Policy Advisory Committee, and members of the Community Development Department staff, are involved in advising Metro on the UGB decision.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

If you have questions or concerns about the effects of the UGB decision on the City or your neighborhood, contact Hal Bergsma, Planning Services Manager, at (503) 350-4037 or hbergsma@ci.beaverton.or.us.

Sister Cities Foundation: Going, Going, Gone!

Those are the words the bidders for our Dinner/Auction love to hear as they help the Foundation earn funds for the students scholarship fund. Our next Dinner/Auction will be held the beginning of February 2003. We are in need of items for Auction and people who would like to attend a fun evening with the proceeds going to local Beaverton students. We are a non-profit organization that can issue receipts for any item you would like to donate. The program for this Dinner/Auction is planned by the students who were awarded scholarships from the previous year.

This will be our fifth year and in that time we have been able to give small scholarships to 51 Beaverton students for travel to our Sister Cities. What a difference in the students when they return from these visits! They can hardly wait to tell anyone who will listen how much they really enjoyed the trip and how much they learned. Some of the students who traveled to Korea during 2002 spring vacation visited a Memorial Park close to Chonan, Korea. There they were able to wander through various buildings containing informational pictures and plaques about the history of South Korea prior to the beginning of the Second World War.

The students said that they had no idea about this part of South Korean history and they were recommending for future visits that the students have more time to pursue this particular tourist site because it was so good to learn another country's history in this way. Imagine teaching high school students history in such an interesting way.

Housing Rehabilitation Program: Help Available for Homeowners

Does your home need repairs you just can't afford? The City may be able to help! Our Housing Rehabilitation program has helped more than 50 Beaverton homeowners since 1999 make major repairs, including new roofs, plumbing and electrical repairs, containing lead paint hazards, and more.

If you live in the City limits, make less than 80% of the median family income for the Portland area, and own your own home, you may be eligible for a low-interest loan (0%-5% interest) of up to $20,000. Qualified mobile home owners may receive grants up to $2,000 for necessary repairs. Lead paint hazards are getting more attention as a threat to children's health, and they can be very expensive to address. We also have special funds available to help families with lead paint problems.

The City is able to provide this service with federal community development and affordable housing funds, to help low-to-moderate income families who earn up to 80% of the median family income. To give you some idea of the income guidelines, a family of four with a gross annual income of up to $45,750 meets the basic eligibility requirement. Very low income residents are eligible for deferred interest loans, where no repayment is required until the property changes ownership.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

To find out more, call the City's Housing Rehabilitation program at (503) 526-2488 or see our Web page: <http://www.ci.beaverton.or.us/departments/blockgrant>.

Solid Waste & Recycling Information

Where do I take hazardous waste materials?

You can bring your hazardous waste to Metro's hazardous waste permanent facilities year-round. Metro also schedules collection events called "roundups" in many communities across the tri-county area, March through November.

There is no charge to bring your hazardous trash to Metro's household hazardous waste permanent facilities or community roundups. The true cost of collecting, handling and recycling or disposing of an average load of household hazardous waste is approximately $85. A small portion of your monthly garbage bill goes to help pay for these services.

Where are the Metro Transfer Stations located and when are they open?

Beaverton City Library News

Measure 34-54: Washington County Library Levy

The Washington County Board of Commissioners has placed a measure on the November ballot, asking voters to consider a $49.9 million 5-year levy to maintain and enhance countywide library operations. This levy would supplement county funding for the Washington County Cooperative Library Services (WCCLS) to address current and projected growth in library use and users. The levy is a rate of 26 cents per $1000 of assessed value, which would add $41 per year to a typical homeowner's tax bill in 2003 (average assessed value of $158,000).

An average of 73% of local library funding comes from Washington County. The County contracts with 8 cities (including the Beaverton City Library), and 2 non-profit organizations, to provide public library service to all county residents. This partnership allows residents to use any library, and borrow from any library in the county. Local libraries use county funding to pay for staff, book purchases, programs and other services. Measure 34-54 would provide additional funding to address increased service levels at expanded libraries

Use of public libraries in Washington County (as measured by circulation) has increased 100% since 1990, topping 6 million this year.

Projections are that circulation will increase to 10.7 million by 2008. In the last year 32,508 people obtained library cards, bringing the total of registered users to over 376,000 (more than 116,000 people are registered at Beaverton City Library). Library users have access to nearly 1.2 million items through WILnet.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

The Ballot Title, Explanatory Statement, a Q&A document and other information on 34-54 can be found on WILnet, www.WILnet.wccls.lib.or.us, or at the Beaverton City Library.

Library Activities for Adults

During October and November the Library presents Consumer Strategies. This innovative eight part series includes presentations on consumer scams, identity theft, getting out of debt, financial planning, home buying and the food we eat.

Feeling left behind in the digital age? Try one of the Computer Classes offered at the Library. Each class focuses on fundamentals: Basic Computers, Spanish Basic Computers, Navigating the Internet, and E-mail Basics. Pre-registration is required.

Take part in our Book Discussion Groups or Fiction Writing Workshops this fall. Several book groups meet monthly: MOSAIC is facilitated by area scholars, WOMB (Women's Biography Group) features biography's on women; The Oregonian Discussion Group features novels selected by editors of the Oregonian. The Fiction Writing Workshops for October focus on Voice, Image, and Metaphor.

Enjoy a variety of cultural and educational programs this fall which include: Native American stories and legends told by Ed Edmo, October 13; a Chautauqua Lecture on Advances in Genetic Engineering, November 3; and jazz standards performed by Mirage, November 10.

Teen Read Week!

Teen Read Week is October 13-19, and the library is celebrating with a Comic Art Workshop on Wednesday, October 16 at 7:00 pm. Professional comic artist Steve Lieber will help you hone your artistic skills and create your own comics sheet. Pre-registration required. Teens can also win a gift certificate in our Superheroes I.D. Contest or win a jar of candy by guessing the number in the jar. Both Teen Read Week contests run from October 13 through October 27.

Library Receives Grant for New Computer Work Stations

The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation will donate four computers, a printer, and a server to the Beaverton City Library this fall. These computers offer a unique blend of programs, access and security that are well suited to computing in a library setting.

The applications include Microsoft word processing, spreadsheet, desktop publishing, and web page design programs, Power Point, and Encarta Encyclopedias/Dictionary. They offer access to the Internet, with enhancements for patrons who are visually impaired. The GLC are set up to compute in many foreign languages, with virtual keyboards for word processing in those languages.

For more information about the Library and its' programs call (503) 644-2197.
Beaverton City Library is located at: 12375 SW 5th Street (corner of Hall and 5th)

Spooky Times at the Library

The Children's Division offers plenty of spooky fun during the month of October. Our monthly puppet show for ages four and up is Piggie Pie, on Saturday, October 5 at 11:00 a.m. It's based on the Marge Palatini book about a silly witch who meets up with some very tricky piggies. Kids ages three to six are invited to come in costume to our story times at the end of the month. Our regular story time sessions on Wednesday, October 30 at 6:30 and Thursday, October 31 at 10:00 and 11:15 a.m. both feature slightly spooky stories just right for younger children. Older children, from ages six to ten, will have a chillingly good time as storyteller Will Hornyak shares spine tingling tales on Saturday, October 26 at 2:00 pm. Come in costume if you want!

Young adults in grades 6-12 will have a howling good time at "Chill Out Nite" on Wednesday, October 30 at 6:30 p.m. Chill out with a pizza taste-off, a costume contest, games, urban legends, and more! Pre-registration is required, so call us at 503-350-4001, or drop by the Young Adult Room to sign up. Test your knowledge with "What Are You Afraid Of?," our Phobias Matching Contest. Match the phobia with its name and you might win a gift certificate! The contest runs throughout October.
